DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant amendments filed October 6, 2009 have overcome previous claim objections. The claim objections of claims 1 and 5-8 have been withdrawn.
2. Applicant's arguments filed October 6, 2009 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The examiner respectfully disagrees with the applicant that Krishnan (US 6,340,348 B1) does not read on the invention as claimed. The step of minimizing cardiac arrhythmia is only in the preamble and is a statement of intended use, so therefore as Krishnan discloses the steps claimed in the body of the claim it therefore also fulfills the intended use of the claim of having the result of minimizing cardiac arrhythmia. It is therefore believed that the rejection dated April 13, 2009 still stands and is repeated below.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

5. Claims 1, 7, and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Krishnan (US 6,340,348 B1). Krishnan discloses a method and apparatus for ultrasound contrast agent imaging which can be used for perfusion of blood in cardiac tissue (abstract). Krishnan comprises triggering a series of high-energy ultrasound pulses to destroy a contrast agent which has been administered to the subject (col. 2 line 32-37). The triggering can be based upon a physiological signal such as an R-wave of the ECG of the heart (col. 6 line 27-33, col. 7 line 55-58). After the destruction of the contrast agent a series of low energy imaging pulses are then triggered at a different point of the physiological signal (col. 2 line 46-50). Krishnan does not explicitly disclose at what point of the physiological signal the series of low energy imaging pulse is triggered. Since the imaging pulse can be triggered at any particular point it would be obvious that the pulses can be triggered at the T-wave of the ECG of the heart.

Conclusion

6. All claims are drawn to the same invention claimed in the application prior to the entry of the submission under 37 CFR 1.114 and could have been finally rejected on the grounds and art of record in the next Office action if they had been entered in the application prior to entry under 37 CFR 1.114. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL even though it is a first action after the filing of a request for continued examination and the submission under 37 CFR 1.114.

Art Unit: 3768

See MPEP § 706.07(b). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

7. A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
